1. To promote the actual equity of genders, eliminate sexism, protect personal integrity, and further establish educational resources and environments that obey the principles of gender equity, the university is establishing these regulations based on the Gender Equity Education Act.
2. The Gender Equity Education Committee (Hereinafter referred to as The Committee) consists of twenty-one members listed as below.
  - 1) Five ex officio members: The President, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Vice President for Student Affairs, Vice President for General Affairs, and the Dean of Counseling and Career Development Division are listed as ex officio members.
  - 2) Twelve recommendation members: Three recommendations by the president, one instructor recommendation by each faculty, and two recommendations from the Human Resources Office (including administrative assistant and project assistant).
  - 3) One professional psychological counselor as recommended by the Counseling and Career Development Division.
  - 4) One professional legal consultant who is a professor of the university as recommended by the president.
  - 5) One undergraduate representative and one graduate representative as elected by the student association.

One half or more of the committee members shall be female. When necessary, the president is entitled to modify the recommendation list upon consultation with the recommendation departments.

3. The tasks of the committee are as follows:
  - 1) To unify all related resources from different departments of the university and establish, implement and examine an implementation plan for gender equity education.
  - 2) Develop and promote courses, lectures and evaluations for gender equity education.
  - 3) Establish regulations on the implementation of gender equity education and prevention of sexual assault and sexual harassment on campus; coordinate and unify related resources.
  - 4) Investigate and respond to cases related to the Gender Equity Education Act.
  - 5) Plan and establish a safe campus where the principle of gender equity is followed.
  - 6) Promote family and social education that relates to gender equity in the community.
  - 7) Other gender equity education affairs related to the university or the community.
4. The committee members are not paid positions. Committee members outside of the university are entitled to traveling and attendance subsidies. The members are hired by the president and the term of office is two years, subject to renewal. In cases where committee members are involved in sexual harassment, sexual assault or sexual bullying on campus, the person's position as committee member shall be lifted.
5. The execution of committee affairs:
  1. The chairman of the committee is the president of the university. At least one committee meeting is to be held each semester. ◦

2. One executive secretary will be hired to fulfill committee affair requirements. The tasks of the secretary is to prepare and plan committee affairs and make implementation plans.
3. Administrative affairs of the committee are to be carried out by professional personnel.
4. The committee is entitled to assign related task teams based on cases. The task team for sexual harassment, sexual assault or sexual bullying would consist of three members appointed by the president and represents the committee when carrying out tasks. In cases of sexual harassment, sexual insult or sexual bullying, regulations of National Sun Yat-Sen University Regulation of Sexual Harassment, Sexual Assault or Sexual Bullying Prevention shall apply.
6. When meetings are held, one half or more of the committee members shall attend. In cases where members are unable to attend meetings, no proxy is to be appointed to fill in for the member. When necessary, experts or related departments can be invited to meetings.
7. Shall there be any unclear matters when referring to the regulations, the regulations of the Gender Equity Education Act shall apply.
8. These regulations should be discussed by the Gender Equity Education Committee Meeting and practiced after being passed by the University Affairs Committee Meeting. The same procedure shall apply to future revisions or amendments.
