College of Liberal Arts Guidelines for Academic Development Committee Establishment

Issued by the 1st College of Liberal Arts General Meeting on October 29, 2009.

- Article 1. These guidelines have been developed by the College of Liberal Arts (CLA) to allow the CLA evaluation of students' eligibility for academic rewards.
- Article 2. The Academic Development Committee (ADC) is responsible for reviewing and approving the CLA's applications for key academic research-related supports as well as all major issues pertaining to the academic development of the CLA.
- Article 3. The ADC comprises the college dean, the chairman of the Humanities and Social Research Center, department/division chairmen, and one representative of professors selected from each department.
- Article 4. The present establishment regulations shall be implemented following approvals of college general meetings. The same procedure shall be carried out when amendments are to be made.
