- I. The National Sun Yat-sen University (NSYSU) College of Marine Sciences (hereafter referred to as “the College”) has established the Curriculum Committee (hereafter referred to as “the Committee”) based on NSYSU’s “Curriculum Committees Establishment Guidelines”.
- II. The Committee constitutes the College Dean and conveners of the various department-level curriculum committees, one or two student representatives and one or two experts from external organizations, with the Dean as the Committee convener. The term of office is 2 years, with prospect of reelection.
- III. Two meetings are held each semester, with additional temporary meetings if necessary.
- IV. The responsibilities of the Committee are as follows:
 - i. Review curriculum structures and development directions of department-level curriculum committees.
 - ii. Integrate and coordinate course establishment of departments in the College to avoid the repetition and resource wasting.
 - iii. Review and inspect the new courses established by various departments.
 - iv. Review matters concerning students’ compulsory course lists.
 - v. Review curriculum related issues.
- V. Matters unaddressed in the present guidelines shall be handled in accordance with relevant laws and regulations.
- VI. The Guidelines shall be approved by the College Curriculum Committee and College General Meeting and then submitted to the University Curriculum Committee for approval. The same procedure shall be carried out when amendments are to be made.
