- I. In order to make reasonable distribution of resources, and to fairly and concretely implement them to each stationing Enterprise, the “Guidelines for the Review of Extending Enterprises’ Stationing Period” (hereinafter the Guidelines) is hereby drawn up.
- II. The Enterprises meeting one of the following three criteria may submit application to Office of Global Industry-Academe Collaboration and Advancement (hereinafter OGIACA) to extend the stationing period one month prior to the expiry of the contract.
 - (I) The Enterprise proposes a new plan and a new product research and development project.
 - (II) The research and development time of the original plan has been extended.
 - (III) Applicants with registration of setting up a company under NSYSU upon expiry of the three-year term.
 - (IV) Other special reasons.
- III. In principle, the period for registration of setting up a company under NSYSU shall be three years, and may be extended up to a maximum of two years.
- IV. Applicants shall submit written materials of extending stationing period to OGIACA for qualification review. If necessary, a review meeting shall be convened by OGIACA, and such applicant will be invited to attend the briefing.
- V. From the date of formal reception, excluding amendments of the case, the entire case review shall not exceed 30 working days.
- VI. The Guidelines were passed by the University Administrative Meetings, and implemented after the President’s approval. All amendments and revisions follow the same process.
